

Nebraska Economic Development Certified Community (EDCC) Program Initial Certification Application

The Nebraska Economic Development Certified Community (EDCC) program is sponsored by the Nebraska Diplomats and administered by staff at the Nebraska Department of Economic Development.

The designation of EDCC is reserved for those communities that document economic development readiness. Each applicant community is evaluated on program standards related to their community's organization, community identified targets and/or markets, community infrastructure, local financing and business assistance, and existing sites and/or building information.

Certification in the EDCC program requires a serious commitment from the applicant community. Applicant communities are expected to have a full-time economic development director focused on business retention and expansion efforts and recruitment efforts.

Certification will be good for five (5) years, with annual reviews of the community's economic development website and LOIS information. Websites and LOIS portals not current and consistent with information will result in suspension of certification.

Program Purpose:

In the extremely competitive field of economic development, communities with the highest degree of readiness are most likely to succeed. The purpose of the EDCC program is to accommodate new business prospect inquiries and support expansions. The EDCC application process provides communities the opportunity to learn about relevant needs for various projects and how to strategically plan to address those needs.

Although this program is not realistic for all communities, the process to help identify capacity, stimulate focused planning and deliberately structure websites is valuable for all communities regardless of size. For those communities that do not meet the requirements for the EDCC program, we recommend exploring the Nebraska Department of Economic Development's Leadership Certified Community (LCC) Program. For further information about the LCC Program, contact Kelly Geweke at 308-627-3151 or by e-mail at kelly.geweke@nebraka.gov or visit our website at <http://www.neded.org/community/community-info/community-improvement/leadership-community>.

Recertification:

Every five (5) years a community with EDCC designation must submit a recertification application that addresses the standards of Organization, Infrastructure, Identified Targets or Markets, Business Retention and Expansion Program, Strategic Planning, Marketing Efforts, Long-Range Funding Plan, Labor Market Information and Workforce Attraction Efforts, Housing Initiatives, Nebraska Diplomat's, and an Economic Development Evaluation.

Six months prior to an EDCC expiration date, a community will receive written notification from the Department of Economic Development indicating the date that a recertification application is due.

Directions:

The EDCC Certification Application must be submitted as a PDF via e-mail to Ashley Rice-Gerlach at ashley.gerlach@nebraska.gov.

EDCC Certification applications are treated as official “Request for Proposals” from the Department meaning that a community must thoroughly answer all questions, number all pages, and identify within the document (easily viewable) the date it is being submitted to the Department.

An EDCC Certification application must include a thumbnailed (i.e. clickable) “Table of Contents”. All attachments should be part of the PDF and identified in the “Table of Contents.”

The applications are reviewed and evaluated by a committee of economic development professionals outside the Department. A community will receive a letter from the Department approximately four weeks from the application submission date, notifying them of their certification and/or indicating any necessary items that need to be addressed to obtain certification.

Any questions can be directed to Ashley Rice-Gerlach at 308-655-0919 or ashley.gerlach@nebraska.gov
